University Park Estates, University Park, TX

A 1.802-acre masterpiece of privacy, elegance, and luxury living—beautifully updated by Sebastian Construction Group—awaits behind the gates of 6601 Hunters Glen, in one of Dallas’s most prestigious neighborhoods, Volk Estates. This iconic three-story estate has been updated, including all bedrooms, bathrooms, family spaces, offices, and media areas. The result is a seamless blend of timeless architecture and modern functionality, with all-new lighting, HVAC, and smart-home systems. The lavish grounds showcase private gardens and courtyards, a tennis and pickleball court, sculpture garden, putting green, children’s playground, and a two-story cabana with guest quarters and a completely remodeled gym. The pool was resurfaced and re-tiled with new pavers, the backyard bar was rebuilt, and patios were resealed. Inside, highlights include soaring dual staircases, ten wood-burning fireplaces, breathtaking terraces, and four gracious bedroom suites. Additional features include Savant home automation for TVs, music, and gates; a Lutron lighting system; and an integrated Ring and Luma security network with approximately a dozen cameras. A true statement of sophistication and modern luxury in the heart of Dallas.
